Three New Principals To Assume Duties In Elba City School System

When students in the Elba City School System return to the classroom next month they will be greeted by two new principals, a new assistant principal and a school official that will monitor absences.

The new principal at Elba High School will be Mickey McCollough, who served as middle school principal for the past 3 1/2 years.

McCollough is a graduate of Elba High School and Troy State University and has been involved in education for 19 years.

"I'm looking forward to the move to high school," stated McCollough, "and except for the increased curriculum available I don't anticipate any major changes. I will work with the staff, parents and students to make sure every student receives the best possible education available."

The position of assistant principal was created at Elba High School and named to fill the position was Willie Tyson. Tyson is a graduate of Elba High and Alabama State University (BS and MS) and has worked in education for 10 years, including four years at Elba from 1977-1981.

Smith also stated there were trees behind the building that needed to be cut down. He said the removal of the trees would eliminate a potential danger to employees and also result in additional parking space.

Added workers at the local level are needed in the service program (3), child support (1), clerical (1) and food service (1).

"Staffing will be on a formula fed into a computer," stated Parrish, "and the information is not always specific enough to fill the needs. Despite the local shortage, Coffee County is still operating in an outstanding manner."

Board chairman Fred Donaldson told Parrish that "Coffee County does indeed have peculiar problems due to the dual courthouses and the military personnel from Ft. Rucker," and encouraged Parrish to feed those problems into the computer.

County P&S Director Ron Smith

reported that he, Donaldson and Rep. Jimmy Holley had met with the "governor's office" regarding the critical staff shortage in the county and was assured a state review team would be appointed to study possible solutions.

Brainstorms .....

With Ferrin Cox

There is a certain woman I know who was making some remarks about the color of both my hair and that of her husband. It just so happens we are in a race to see which of us can get the most gray hair. I looked it up this week and it is in the Bible . . . "The beauty of old men is their gray head . . . Proverbs 20:29. Look it up -- it is there. Now I don't want any more giggles about just how the color is leaving my head. I am thankful there is still some hair left to turn gray.

"Greenpeace", the very militant environmental movement organization, has been dogging whaling ships, atomic bomb testing, etc., since 1971. It is apparently a well-funded group and does a good job. The last time I saw it, at least one of these ships exploded and sank in an Australian harbor. Many people were killed. We don't have a lot of support for these people and frown on some of their tactics, but never, never could we approve of violence to stop their efforts. They do stir the emotions of the public -- that is by design -- but let's pretend we are civilized and talk about our problems rather than killing each other.

The United States Football League is in money trouble, and we can relate to that. They have written some fantastic contracts for players during the past two years, and probably jumped with joy when some of these high paid jocks wanted out of the deal. So don't feel sorry for them the next time you read of a USFL player buying out his contract, because these owners probably need the millions or two they will receive just to keep the front gate open and the footballs pumped up for the games.

President Reagan had surgery for cancer last week. None of us likes to hear the news that our problems are cancer-related, but frankly we are better off with the truth than believing a lie. We wish Mr. Reagan Godspeed. We predict this will make the raising of money for cancer research a little easier, at least for a while. We feel that statistics show survival rates are getting much better, and we are grateful for that. Some 18 years ago we were told we had cancer and our survival rate was zero. The best chance we had was to be kept alive for four or five years, and maybe by that time a cure would be found. Well, thankfully we didn't die, and there is still no manmade cure for the cancer they said we had. We ain't mad at those who cut us on, or the lab that said we had "it". We are just happy to be here and feel confident there are others, namely President Reagan, who will be around to enjoy this life with us.

A couple of weeks ago we visited the reconstructed town of Westville, near Lumpkin, Georgia. In one of the old homes a black woman was cooking sausage and biscuits over the open fire. A large firecracker exploded over 75 cents for a hot biscuit and two link sausages. While eating the tasty food, and off and on afterwards, I couldn't help but wonder if this "ole timey" cooking might not be some of Elba's own Kelley's sausage from Elba Packing Company. This would have been amusing to the last. Finally we asked Everett Kelley if he sold them those sausages and he didn't. However, he knew of a firm over in Georgia that made a sausage ALMOST as good as Kelley's, and suggested it was probably one of theirs. Anyway, our food cooked in that old cookshop was prepared in a very modern meat packing plant checked continuously by the health department.

The Coffee County Sheriff's Department is wanting to talk to a James Eddins about a deal to sell him in a large firecracker. Now, I am not sure if this is a good idea according to the law of a local Sheriff Paul gave us this would be one of those great money-making deals of the year; especially since the letter indicated Elba would be paying part of the cost. Alabama Electric Co-op would be paying part, and these private investors would be getting all kinds of tax breaks. I need some of this because it reports you won't get half of your investment back in tax savings . . . the first year! We suggest you not buy this unless you have some money to throw away, because some of the facts as presented are not exactly like we understand them.

Claude E. Dorsey Jr. Scholarship

Recipients Named

The University of Alabama at Birmingham Medical School and Scholarship Committee has chosen six recipients for the Claude E. Dorsey Jr. Scholarship. Scott Blume, Billy Buckner, Kent Frost, Joyce Lilly, Andrea Maddux and Charles McMillen, all of Elba, and Dr. Roland Ficken, Dr. Alan Harris, Dr. Henry Hoffman, Mrs. Verna Lyons, Dr. Donald McCalister, Claude McCann, Dr. Paul Palmsano and Mrs. Dorsey.

Every May the committee meets with Mrs. Claude E. Dorsey of Elba to review applications for the scholarship set up in 1961 by her husband in his will. Mrs. Dorsey has benefited the candidates on an individual basis. Some 125 students have benefited from the fund in its 24-year existence.

Medical students intern and residents who display exceptional abilities may make an application for this scholarship. It is designed for the purpose of attracting young men and women into the profession of medicine, and providing them with opportunities for continued training, in order to build the fund and assure its permanence, a method is provided for recipient to pledge gifts in a suggested amount comparable to the grant. John Powell, associate director of Financial Aid, emphasized that although the pledged gifts are not required, they are strongly encouraged.

The grant to an individual varies according to need and to other circumstances, but, in no case exceeds $2,000 annually. Final selection of recipients is made by the committee of six members of Powell, Dr. John McElroy, Dr. John M. Ficken, Dr. Roland Ficken, Dr. Alan Harris, Dr. Henry Hoffman, Mrs. Verna Lyons, Dr. Donald McCalister, Claude McCann, Dr. Paul Palmsano and Mrs. Dorsey.

Ft. Rucker Art Auction To Be Held

The Fort Rucker Recreation Center is sponsoring an art auction Saturday (Aug. 3) to be followed by an open sale Sunday (Aug. 4). Admission is free and open to the public.

All types of art work will be available, including original oils and watercolors, graphics, decorator art and prints.

Prices of the works will start at $25, with 100 works of art guaranteed to be auctioned for $100 or less. Some of the higher-priced original works are collector's pieces.

The artwork will be on display in the Recreation Center Multipurpose Room beginning at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, with the auction to follow at 7:30.

An open sale will be held in the same location from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

Catalogs of the art, along with certificates of authenticity for each piece to be auctioned, will be available.

The auction and sale will be conducted by Patrician Galleries of Atlanta, with a portion of the proceeds going to the post's Installation Morale, Welfare and Recreation Services.

For further information, call 225-2594 or 255-5111.

IS YOUR INSURANCE AGENT LOCKED INTO ONE COMPANY?

There are 2 ways to buy insurance. You can buy your insurance from a one-company agent. But they're locked into only those policies that their company sells. So their hands are tied.

Or you can buy your insurance from an independent insurance agent...the more-than-one-company agent. You see, a "big" independent agent like us doesn't work for one company. We represent several. So we're free to give you an independent opinion and advise you on the best coverage at the best price. And that goes for homeowners, automobile, business, life and health insurance.

Before you buy a standard insurance policy...see our "big" independent insurance agent...the more-than-one-company agent. Do it today.

August 1-Deadline Approached For

Peanut Recipe Contest

Creative cooks in Georgia, Florida and Alabama who would like to have a chance to win $2,000 should enter their recipe for entries in America's Peanut Recipe Contest at Ogg.

The contest is sponsored by the Peanut Advisory Board of the three states. According to Randy Griggs of the Peanut Advisory Board of Association, which is the sponsoring organization in Alabama, two winners in each state will be chosen in both a sweet and nonsweet category. The state winners will receive $250 in prize money and an expense-paid trip to the National Peanut Festival in Dothan, for a tri-state cookoff October 24. The grand prize winner in each category will then receive $2,000.

America's Peanut Recipe Contest is open to anyone 18 years of age or older who is a resident of the state. Entries will be judged on effectiveness of use of peanuts, originality, flavor and appearance. All entries must be postmarked no later than August 1.

For a complete list of contest rules and entry forms, which should accompany each recipe, interested persons in Alabama should quickly write or call the: Alabama Peanut Producers Association, P.O. Box 1282, Dothan, AL 36302 or 205/792-6482 or 205/793-2384.

CAREFREE PICNIC

Summer is the season for all sorts of outdoor activities, and this includes picnics. A successful picnic is a must.

The answer to safe picnic foods is canned foods. With just a can opener, you can add a variety of foods to your picnic.

Buy canned picnics, salad, three-bean salad, fruit cocktail and other cold meal accompaniments in cans. Hot dog buns and hamburgers with canned chili. With lid removed, canned foods can be heated on the grill when cooking out. Don't forget the pork and beans - you can serve them cold or heat gently on the grill.

THREE-UP STAINS

You can remove coffee and tea stains from cups by soaking them in a solution of liquid chlorine bleach and water. Use three tablespoons of bleach for each quart of hot water. Let cups soak for five to ten minutes.

This method only applies to glass, china or plastic cups. Do not use on aluminum or metal.

TWO NEW PUBLICATIONS

We have "Choosing Children's Clothes" and "Reshape With Fashion" for your copy.

Points discussed in the children's clothes leaflet are: amount of money to spend; to buy or make; sizes; fit and growth features. The fashions leaflet mentions fit, personal areas, night wear, and color line and a nice chart for points on how to dress if you are bottom-heavy, top-heavy, generous or slender.

ROY JACKSON of the Zion Chapel Community shows a large vegetable egg, weighing 4-1/8 lbs., and his running cucumbers - measuring 23-24 inches. He grew the outstanding vegetables in his home garden, and this is the first vegetable egg on the plant.

Unseen Robbers

BY: DAN PRESLEY County Agent

"Unseen robbers" could be causing your garden plants to die or fail to produce. These "unseen robbers", otherwise known as nematodes, can do tremendous damage to our plants by damaging the root so they can't pick up nutrition from the soil.

Nematodes are microscopic round worms that live in the soil. Many species damage many species by feeding in large numbers on the roots of our plants. Severe root damage results in unthirsty, stunted plants. Although nematode populations rarely grow large enough to actually kill plants, they can distract and reduce yield.

Nematodes are usually confined to localized areas in a garden and will spread very slowly under their own power. Movement of soil through cultivation speeds up the spread of nematodes throughout the garden. Nematodes can be controlled in the home garden by following one or a combination of the practices listed below.

Sanitation aids in reducing plant parasitic nematode populations. Plants should be harvested from the garden as soon as possible after the vegetables have been harvested. This practice can be particularly effective in small gardens. Plow the garden soon after the final harvest to remove plant debris from the surface of the soil. The drying action of wind and sun will destroy many nematodes and their eggs, thus preventing further buildup. Vegetable roots left in the soil through the winter will escape the host on which the nematodes built up in their populations for the following year.

Weeds also serve as hosts on which many nematodes can live and multiply. Effective weed control in the home garden aids in preventing the buildup of nematodes.

Rotation is another very effective means of controlling parasitic nematodes. A particular vegetable or vegetables belonging to the same family should never be grown in the same area for two consecutive years.

If space is available, it is a good practice to rotate garden sites. Where garden space is limited, rotate related vegetables in one family group with vegetables in unrelated family groups.

When to Treat If you plan to have an application of soil fumigant, treat the soil in the fall when the soil is cool and moist. Do not apply fumigants when the soil temperature is less than 50°F or above 90°F.

Rotary Tiller and Sprinkling Can Method With a sprinkler can apply two pints of Vapam in 2½ gallons of water over 100 square feet. Sprinkle evenly over the soil surface, the width of the rotary tiller and incorporate immediately. Smooth the soil surface and water seal using a soft spray sprinkler head on a hose to prevent the gas from escaping the soil. Sprinkle until the soil melts or the soil surface is wet about one-half inch deep.

Broadcast Treatment A broadcast nematicide treatment the previous fall is preferred by many gardeners who wish to plant an early spring garden. This type of treatment is more expensive but is usually more effective in controlling nematodes. The entire garden area, rather than just the rows, is treated.

The hose proportioner method and the sprayer method may also be used to broadcast treat the soil with Vapam. Both methods are done in the same manner as described for row treatment, except the entire area rather than a portion of the row is treated.

For broadcast rates, check the Vapam label.

Rotary Tiller and Sprinkling Can Method With a sprinkler can apply two pints of Vapam in 2½ gallons of water over 100 square feet. ## Views From The Pressbox

By, Ricky Mularz, Editor

The Elba Jaycees sponsored a softball tournament last weekend and it had one of the best tournaments held in Elba in many years. A total of 26 teams competed in two divisions, and between the players and their families the folks tried to eat Elba dry! The tourney was a big boost to the local eating establishments, a shot in the arm for the city recreation department and a financial success for the Jaycees. The Jaycees are to be commended for the success of the tourney and I hope it will become an annual event to look forward to.

The Elba Tennis Association sponsored its first "Open" tournament last weekend and it too was a huge success. A total of 50 people competed in singles competition, while 27 doubles teams competed, making it Elba's biggest tennis tournament ever. Hugh Martin and the tennis folks did a lot of work and it showed that people will come to Elba and play. Y'all did a good job!

The Elba Babe Ruth All-Stars placed second in the district tournament last week in Geneva and really represented Elba well. The players and coaches put in a lot of long hours practicing for the tournament and came mighty close to winning the whole thing. This year's all-stars did a super job and deserve a pat on the back for their effort.

It was a busy weekend for the Elba Umpires Association as the umps called a total of 86 ball games in Elba, Andalusia and Enterprise. If you want something to do on the weekends next summer just let me know and I'll put you to work.

In Dixie Youth Action

Elba All-Stars Outscore Brundidge 9-6

The Elba Dixie Youth All-Stars opened their sub-district tournament action Monday night and defeated an exciting 9-6 win over Brundidge.

Ronald Thigpen singled with one out in the first inning to get Elba rolling and then went to second when the pitcher Mark Matthews put down Brundidge in order the first two innings, and Kenneth King repeated the feat in the third as Elba clung to a 2-0 lead after three innings of play.

Elba owned a quick 2-0 lead. The pitcher Mark Matthews put down Brundidge in order the first two innings, and Kenneth King repeated the feat in the third as Elba clung to a 2-0 lead after three innings of play.

Elba's bats came back to life in the fourth inning as the all-stars pushed across three runs to open up a 5-0 lead. A double by Shawn Duhel opened the inning, and Kyle Duhel singled to load in Duhel and added a run to Elba's lead. A single by Jason Whitworth put two runners on base and both came in to score when Mark Magwood singled up the middle.

combined two hits

with an error to score three runs in the bottom of the fourth and cut the Elba lead to 5-3; however, Elba bounced back in the fifth inning and added two runs to its lead to 7-3.

The first run came in when

hit a double, while the second run came when Shawn Duhel singled, went to third on an error and scored a run by Ronald McKinnon. A double by Mark Matthews, a single by Robin Stinson and two stolen bases by King led to 9-3 in the sixth and the all-stars survived a late rally to claim the win.

The cost of athletics is rising daily and this year the Elba Athletic Club will be asked to help more than ever.

Burton — Hocutt Wedding

Miss Carolyn Burton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Burton of Grant, Alabama, and Mr. Keith Hocutt son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hocutt of Elba, were united in marriage on Saturday, June 15, 1985, at 11 o'clock in the morning at the First Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia, with Rev. Varon Crosby officiating.

A program of wedding music was provided by Bee Wolter, organist. Linda Osborne created a spirit of worship by singing "Love You Lord Medley". During the ceremony Vince Collins sang "Jesus Lord To Me" and while the couple knelt at the altar, "Hallelujah" was sung. "Adoration", "Hymn of Joy" was played for the procession of the wedding party. The recessional music was "O Magnify the Lord". The church was tastefully decorated with Boston ferns arranged around candletrees which held white candles that provided lovely candlelight in the sanctuary.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was directed by the priest by her father. She wore a gown of satiness with Schiffli lace, the fitted bodice in an A-line style accented by a plumeria and chapel train. Her two-tier fingertip veil was held in place by a clip. She carried a bridal bouquet of silk flowers over a white Bible which was given to her as a wedding gift.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister-in-law, Joyce Burton of Grant, Alabama.

Flowers — Leesburg, Georgia; Deborah Stabler, Auburn, sisters of the groom; Robbie Haire, Phenix City, cousin of the bride; Diane Reisinger and Libby Endsley, of Atlanta, a close friend of the bride was Erin Poythress of Atlanta.

Bridal attendants were gowned alike in periwinkle blue floor-length polyester dresses. Each carried an arrangement of silk flowers in shades of blue and white.

For the daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burton chose a pale pink chiffon tea-length dress accented with satin cuffs and belt, pleated bodice which held a flowing panel down the back.

Mr. George Hocutt served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Steve Peeler, Hockville; Charles Hester, Burton, Grant, Alabama; brother of the bride; Herbie, Shaw and Seth Burton of Grant, nephews of the bride. Ringbearer was Glen Burton of Grant, nephew of the bride.

The groom and groomsmen wore traditional daytime formal wear of charcoal gray cutaway jacket, tapered into tails, with hickory striped trousers and complemented by coordinating striped ascot and dove gray vest. Each wore a white rosebud boutonniere.

RECEPTION Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the dining room of the church.

Linda Danley, Atlanta, greeted the guests at the registration table and invited them to the bride's table for refreshments.

The bride's tables were skited and overlaid with white cloths. One table was centered by a four-tiered cake, decorated with miniature rosebuds. The cake was cut and served by Annette Brown of Atlanta.

The other table held a silver centerpiece, a silver bowl of floral arrangement. Silver compotes held party delicacies, and punch was served from a silver punch bowl by Jean Creech, Patty Shaling and Barbara Thomas, of Atlanta.

Mrs. Keith Hocutt

Farris Reunion Held Week Of July Fourth

Descendants of J.C. and Elizabeth Farris and their families gathered for a reunion the week of July 4. The reunion had been held at the home of Janes and Mathayln Farris of Basin Community since 1980.

The family consists of three boys — James, Harold and Ronald — and three girls — Elizabeth, Louise and Minnie Mae — and all were present except Harold.

Some family members arrived June 20, staying until July 6.

A delicious barbecue meal was enjoyed on the lawn and the evenings on July 3. On July 4, the meal was enjoyed in the back yard under the shade trees. There were all kinds of vegetables, salads, casseroles, country fried chicken and dessert, galore, including Linda Farris, Mississippi, who made the peach cobbler from Woodbridge, Virginia.

The fireworks were displayed, lighting up the night with sound and all colors for all to enjoy along with friends and neighbors of James and Mathayln.

The traditional fish fry was on Friday evening, S. with the family members going fishing at Billy Wyndrook's pond in the community.

The old timey ice cream was enjoyed on Friday night with gallons of peach, peanut butter, vanilla, and orange sherbet.

Meals attending this year were:

Neel and Elizabeth Alloway of Dunedin, Fla., their sons and families, Wayne and Judy Alloway and children, Christy and Brian, and children, Anna and Amy of Easley, S.C. Dave and Louise Birt of Coraopolis, Pa., Rudy and Minnie Mae of Lighthouse Point, Fla., and Rhoda Mae Sellers of Woodbridge, Va., Ronald
